Stationery Greeting Cards in Mail

Choose a Greeting Card, add images and create your message - with your Greeting Card in Apple Mail

Installing Stationery Greeting Cards

Before we get started, you'll need to install Stationery Greeting Cards.

Downloading & installing the app

- First, you'll need to download Stationery Greeting Cards (there's just one download that includes all the different packs)
- Once your download has finished, double-click the Stationery Greeting Cards.dmg file in your downloads folder:

• Next, double-click one of the packs to install the app:

 After the installation process has finished enter your equinux ID and password to download all of your templates.

Restoring your purchased templates

Restoring your purchased templates after a re-installation is also done in a few steps.

 First, choose "Stationery Greeting Cards > Restore Purchases..." from the top menu bar.

• Then enter your equinux ID and password to install your templates:

Finding the right template

Choosing a pack and selecting a category

We offer a variety of different Stationery Greeting Cards collections. Any collections you have installed will show up with a green checkmark. You can also purchase additional collections via the shopping cart icon.

Show all templates in a collection

 Click a Stationery Greeting Cards collection (e.g. "Birthday Cards 2") to see all the Greeting Cards included in that collection:

Finding Greeting Cards by category

Previewing a template

• Double-click a template to pull it up for a closer look:

Opening a template in Mail

Once you've picked a template, you can open it in Apple Mail to write your message, add photos and send it.

Opening a template in Stationery Greeting Cards

From Stationery Greeting Cards, double-click a template, then click the Mail icon to open your template in Mail:

<page-header><page-header><image><image>

Finding your templates in MailUsing text Perfect

Once you've installed your templates, you can also get to them directly in Mail.

All templates that have been installed once in Mail can now be accessed from the "Custom" category in the stationery pane of Apple Mail.

Creating your message

Once you've selected a template, you can write your message, just as you would normally in Mail or create a message using one of the Text Perfect messages.

Writing your message using Text Perfect

 Drag the Greeting Card you want to use into the Greeting Card placeholder.

Drag a Text Perfect message into the Text Perfect placeholder. You can easily find the right Text Perfect message using the different filter options.

• Click "New Message" in order top open the Greeting Card in Apple Mail.

Writing your message in Apple Mail

If you want to delete the placeholder text

• Just click inside the text area and start typing, or hit delete on your keyboard to clear the placeholder text:

Hello James,

To keep and change the placeholder text

 Click inside the text area so the placeholder text is selected. Then use the arrow keys on your keyboard so you can start editing the placeholder text.

Adding pictures to your message

Many Greeting Cards also include photo dropzones that make it easy to add photos and other images to your message.

Adding pictures

Move your mouse cursor over an image in the template. If it's a dropzone, you'll see a grey area appear where you can drop your photos:

To add a picture, simply drag it onto a dropzone and let go of the mouse button to add it to your Greeting Card email:

Resizing and adjusting images

You can zoom and move your photo inside the dropzone for a better fit:

- Click a photo inside a dropzone and use the slider to zoom in on a particular part of your photo
- Click and drag to move your photo until it looks perfect

You can easily find photos you have in iPhoto and add them to your Greeting Card message.

 Click the photo browser icon to view your photos in iPhoto and drag them into your message

Using Signatures and Logos

If you're using our business templates, you can add your company logo and signature to your message. Use the Image Perfect tool to automatically adjust your logo or signature for a better fit.
